Waynesville Wanderings DVD Premier May 19th

Roll out the red carpet! The Museum at the Friends Home in Waynesville will stage the premier of its exciting DVD project, Waynesville Wanderings: A Video Oral History of Waynesville and Vicinity from Early Pioneers through 1970s, at 7 p.m. on Saturday, May 19, 2007 at the Red Brick Meeting House, 407 High Street. The public is invited; however, reservations are requested to 513.897.1607.

A year in the making, Waynesville Wanderings offers a personal stroll down memory lane. The unique heritage of northern Warren County covers early Quaker settlers, the establishment of businesses and communities throughout the area, the devastating fire that destroyed most of Main Street, and more. Revisit the Mill Race swimming pool that cooled so many youngsters and share the tragic loss of New Burlington to Caesars Creek reservoir.

Producer Jud Yalkut filmed nearly a dozen hours of interviews with 17 individuals. Personal reminiscences are interspersed with scenes of local historic sites and old photographs from the Museum's extensive archives, all backed by traditional music from the Dulcimer Friends of Caesars Creek. Yalkut condensed these treasures into 60-minute time capsule for the Wayne and Massie Township areas. The DVD will be available to local schools and libraries, as well as by sale to the public, to keep the memories alive.

This special DVD project was funded by a generous grant from the Ohio Humanities Council.

For more information, call the Museum at 513.897.1607. Located at the corner of Fourth and Miami Streets in the historic Quake, District of Waynesville, the Museum is open for visitors Sunday and Wednesday from 1-4 p.m., and by appointment.
